Official Graduation Civilian Defense Council Held Thursday Night

169 Completed Course and Received Insignias-Interesting Program Was Arranged—Large And Enthusiastic Crowd Present

The first official graduation of the Civilian Defense Volunteer Office was held Thursday evening at the Courthouse with Mrs. C. C. McDonald, director of the office, presiding. There were approximately 300 pres-

In a few brief remarks Mrs. Mc-Donald said that after six months of volunteer work in the office insignias were to be awarded to those completing their basic training in any particular squad. She stated that several had taken out of town training and that these awards were not in recognition of that work but only the work taken in the county office. A program of interest had been prepared and Mrs. McDonald directed remarks explained fully the operation of the Control Center and demonstrated how each unit of the Center functions. The heads of the different units of the Control Center responded in person making it very clear how efficiently an emergency can be taken care of from the first signal flashed to the summoning of the staff and their assuming responsibility for the vaminutes.

OUR CIVILIAN DEFENSE COUNCIL

N last Thursday night the Civilian Defense Council of Hancock County held its first graduation exercises. It was amazing to see the spirit that radiated from the crowd gathered in the court room for the exercises the young, the middle aged and the old, all alike, comprised as enthusiastic a crowd as one could ever hope to see. You could read on the faces of those present, the eargerness to do something for the good of their country.

The Civilian Defense Office in Hancock County has been outstanding in its work and accomplishments. To Mrs. C. C. McDonald, who is head of the Civilian Defense Volunteer Office, and to her co-workers and to the Red Cross First Aid Instructors must be given the credit for much that has been accomplished. These ladies and men have been tireless in their efforts. They have given their time and energy, regardless of inconveniences, so that there might be a proper coordination of civilians for defense in our county, in the event of necessity.

There were 169 graduates. It was necessary that each of these, before he or she could be awarded his insignia, complete the Red Cross First Aid course and have at least twenty hours of instruction, including the ten hours of First Aid. This meant inconvenience and sacrifice to many of those who were awarded their insignia and many of these on different occasions probably passed up many personal matters in order that they might attend these class-To those who were awarded their insignia, we wish to extend our congratulations, and to those who are still working on their requirements, we wish to say that it is worth the trouble, as you will have the satisfaction of feeling that, in the event of our enemies attacking us, you will be in a position to help in the defense of your country and help take care of the emergencies that may arise. If we are so fortunate as not to have our country or our community effected by invasion, the courses that you have received in First Aid will be of great benefit to you, even in your every day life.

We are, indeed, very happy to be able to lend our small efforts and be a part of the Civilian Defense Council of Hancock County, and we are happy to be able to say again that we have never seen a gathering of people more enthusiastic and more patriotic than were gathered together Council, and again, we wish to extend our congratulations to the ladies and men who have the class rooms. given their time and particularly to Mrs. Mc-Donald, who, in our opinion, is the most inde- of the days when we were in attendance at Jessie Evans Beech made possible the accomplishments of the world torn by war and strife, as it is today. MR: COLMER'S REFERENCE

THE voters of the Sixth Congressional District of Mississippi have, by their vote, passed on the record of Congressman W. M. Colmer, and have very wisely, in our opinion, renominated him for his seat in Congress.

Bill Colmer has represented this District for ten years and he has made a very able Representative. He is not the type of man who talks constantly. He goes about his work quietly and with precision, and in this manner produces far more results than the loud-talking, braggadocio type of office holder, or candidate for office. Mr. Colmer was reelected by a majority above 5,000 votes. This, in our opinion, shows the marked esteem in which he is held by his constituents. His opponent, Judge Ben Stevens of Hattiesburg, is well known throughout the district; however, the people must, undoubtedly be well satisfied with the manner in which Mr. Colmer has handled his official business in Washington.

The campaign for Congress was exceptionally quiet. Circulars and newspaper advertisements and personal contacts were the principal measures used by the two candidates. To us, the outstanding phase of this whole campaign Lawrence Adren Carco was the remarks of Mr. Colmer in his one pub- Elwood Foster Bourgeois ic address over the radio, in which he stated Willie Eugene Ruffin that his opponent claimed to have a plan of Wilson Lois Mauffray bringing the war to a victorious conclusion. Mr. Colmer went on further to state that, if his opponent had such a Elvin Andrew Asher plan, and that if it could be proved feasible, Roddie Pearson Powell that he would retire from the race and resign Ernest Adam Milam his office, in order that his opponent might go to Congress and put into effect the plans for Woodrow Corbonnette victorious conclusion of the war. This state- Arnold Carver ment was characteristic of Bill Colmer, who, Wilford Anthony Bordages in our opinion, places his country above his Lawrence Sylvan Ellis selfish interests.

We have always been happy in the thought | John Alton Elwin | William Edwin Marquez that we could number Bill Colmer among our Tyrell Theodore Manieri personal friends. Hancock County has always Byron Oscar Luc been friendly to him, and gave him more votes William Simon Mitchell proportionately than any county in his district. 107 RETAILERS IN COUNTY DELINQUENT

Out of a total of 167 retailers in Hancock County 107 have not yet filed statements of their ceiling prices on cost-of-living commodities with the local War Price and Rationing Board, the State Office of OPA here declared today.

The statements were due not later than July 1, but OPA has used the weeks since that date as an unofficial "grace period" in which to remind delinquent retailers that their statements were overdue.

Now, however, the "grace period" has expired and every retailer whose

Each retailer also must have on hand in his store, ready for examination by his customers or any other interested person, a statement of the highest price at which during March he sold or offered for sale each article in his store on which the regulation places a ceiling.

Any retailer who wilfully or deliberately violates the regulation makes himself subject to severe civil and criminal penalties.

Drilling Continues

Oil and Gas Director Morse states 7.44 that several wells are being drilled 7.44 in the state at this time and some of 7.44 them with fine prospects for sugcess. Drilling near Natchez is within five or six miles of the wells r cently brought into production in 7.44 Concordia Parish, Louisiana. Other 7.44 wells are being drilled in Clark and 7.44 Hinds Counties. The pipeline sup-7.44 posed t obe laid from the Tinsley 7.44 field to the Atlantic seoboard is not 7.44 yet under construction.

Accidents Off 15 Per Cent 7.44 Traffic accidents in the United 7.44 States show a declin eof 15 per cent 7.44 compared with the same period of 7.44 1941, according to figures released 7.44 by the Public Safety Council of Chicago. In the month of June, the figures report 34 traffic deaths in the state, as compared to 44 in the same 7.44 month of 1941. In the first size 7.44 months of 1942 traffic deaths in 7.44 Mississippi are placed at 212 as com-7.44 pared to 26 in 1941. These figures 7.44 are confirmed by the Mississippi Highway Patrol.

> Cotton Crop Up The latest estimates on the cotton

7.44 crop for this year is 13,085,000 bales. 7.44 If this estimate is realized it will be 7.44 the largest crop for several years. The Government has indicated a loan base of around 16.5 cents per pound 7.44 and many well informed cotton men 7.44 believe the price will be around 20 7.44 cents. If the estimate holds out 7.44 and the price holds up and pickers 7.44 can be had, these "ifs" can be overcome and the cotton crop of 1942 with the seed will bring to the far-7.44 mers of the South mighty close to 7.44 one and a half billion dollars. The 7.44 estimate for Mississippi is 1,835,-7.44 000 bales against 1,424,000 in 194. 7.44 The Mississippi crop, if it can f: picked, and the prcie is around wh now seems to be the basis will bring to the state around 200 million do lars.

* * * 7.44 Enlisted in Navy

7.44Among those who have given up positions with the state to enter the armed forces is Ermis C .Wilson, who resigned a good job with the State Auditor to enlist in the Navy.

Judges of the Mississippi Supreme 7.44 Court have been on their usual 7.44 summer vacation for the past few 7.44 weeks but will resume their labors on the second Monday in September.

7.42 In 1941 Mississippi had 3,539 7.42 deaths from heart disease. . . . To 7.42 keep fires out of the forest is one 7.42 way in which every citizen can 7.44 help his country. On recent visits to some of home gardens of the county evid ince of good spring and summer gardens were seen in the garden and of the 5.57 pantry shelf. These abundant supplies should not lull home gardeners into an attitude that will permit 5.57 "laying by." In Hancock County the garden should never be "laid, by." Fall gardens are needed to produce 5.57 fresh vegetables so that the canned goods may stay on the shelf until cold, cold winter and the higher prices yet to come.

Fall Irish potatoes will keep in fine condition through next Spring. Fall turnips, mustard, spinach, kale and rape make little canning of leafy vegetables necessary.

Fall carrots, beets, turnip roots, rutabagas and onions will keep in the garden rows all winter if the garden site is well drained and the rows are covered with a furrow of 6.50 soil after the roots mature. These root crops may also be banked as, we have banked sweet potatoes for years.

Snap bush beans, according to the Extensive Garden Specialist, planted late in August, will produce higher quality beans for canning than the same variety planted in the spring. Any of the standard varieties are satisfactory as Giant Stringless, Stringless Black Valentine, Bountiful or Tendergreen Stringless 6.50 Green pod. One foot of row of bush 6.50 beans should average a yield of 1/2 6.50 pound of beans.

Head lettuce can be planted the last of August or first of September. Mr. Monosmith recommends Imperial 847 and New York 12 for fall planting. Leaf lettuce may be planted 5.57 anytime in August or September. Mustard: use varieties: Chinese Mustard or Florida Broadleaf for 4.02 August planting.

Turnips: 1. plant in rows. 2 Plant variety Shogoin turnips in 6.50 August because they are resistant to 650 lice. 3. Nitrate applications are not 6.50 necessary on leafy vegetable ci as 6.50 in fall if barnyard manure has then 6.50 used during season. Beets and Swiss Chard: 1. Cak overnight. 2. If soil is not mast, 6.50 open furrows, sow seed, fill ur-6.50 rows with water, allow to soak in 22v-6.50 er with dry soil, and firm row. 3. 6.50 Swiss Chard is a double pur ose 6.50 leafy vegetable that is good for the 6.50 whole family, including the chickens. 6.50 Grow some this fall. Salvaging Logs

The August 15th number of the Southern Lumberman carries an interesting article by J. Roland Weston entitled "Sunken Logs and Logging Brands of the Lower Pearl River Valley." - This article was prompted by the salvage of logs sunk in Pearl River at Logtown, seventy H or eighty years ago. It deals with the general logging operation of those days, and the various old time H logging brands used at that time. It tells of the present methods of recovering these logs and the remarkable fact that they are as sound as the day they were cut. Due to the H. Weston Lor. Co., 1-8 int. Aid To Dependents Of Service Men

4.10 HE House has passed a bill thorizing payments to the pendents of service men soon as practicable instead of November 1, as originally provide At the request of the military author ities the date for the first payments 20.93 under the Allowance end Allotment 00 176.20 Act was fixed at November 1 be cause War and Navy Departments advised that it would take that long to set up the machinery for admittistering the law. These allowances are made up of a contribution from 13.79 the Government and a deduction 8.79 from the enlisted men's pay. This 16.46 deduction went into effect promptly when the soldier filed application for an allowance for his dependents, and his apay thus cut in half. This left little money to send home to tide his people over the period until November 1 and this worked some hardships. The House bill is an effort to relieve this situation by allowing the Army and Navy to make

The War Program Some idea of the stupendousness of our war effort can be gathered from the fact that during the first two years of intensive rearmament $129,998,000,000 worth of equipment, .89 supplies and services were ordered by the Government. During the first year-from July, 1940, through June, 1941—war contracts and commitments amounted to $27,801,000, 000. During the second year ending .89 July 1, 1942, they almost quadrupled .89 the amount for the first year, total ing $102,197,000,000. Actual appr >- 3 priations for the war program now payments to dependents at once. The bill still must be acted upon by the amount to $214,542,000,000. The job before us is to translate these figures into military equip ment and to get that equipment to .89 the scene of operations.

V-Mail Service to speed letters to 1.81 and from men serving overseas is now in full operation between the 6.48 United States and the British Isles. 5.32 Australia, India, Hawaii, and sever-298 al other points, and a similar ser-3.80 vice is being planned for Iceland. Special V-Mail letter sheets are available at all post offices and have been distributed to all overseas mil-3.39 itary and naval posts. The letters 2.05 written on these special sheets are 21.77 photographed, the film is then flown 3 6.48 abroad, and the letter is reproduced there. V-Mail is even given preference over air mail when transportation facilities of the Army and 17.04 Navy are used Any postmaster can 4.38 give full information about V-Mail.

Selective Service Selective Service Director Hershey has warned; that draft boards will be calling men with dependents before Christmas and that married 1.00 men with no children would come next. In fact, some boards, where the supply of single men has been exhausted, are already having to call men with dependents in order to fill their quotas. As pointed out 1.00 in these columns some time ago, 1.00 men with depndents will be called 1.00 in the following order: single men with "secondary" dependents (such as aged or crippled relatives), married men whose wives work, men with dependent wives but no child-1.00 ren, and finally men with wives 1.00 and children

2.16 The Selective Service System also is eliminating its classification known as Class 1-B, which is made up of men who are considered fit physi-1.00 cally for limited military service .00 only. Local Boards have been in-.00 structed to reclassify these men at .00 a rate of not more than one-fourth of the total number each month. Men formerly in Class 1-B who are not deferred further because of dependency or as "necessary men" 44 will be reexamined by local board .16 physician and either placed in Class .16 1-A or Class IV-F according to 16 whteher they have obviously disqualifying defects which would prevent them from performing any military service.

> Christmas Packages For Armed Forces.

The War, Navy, and Post Office Departments have set November 1 as the deadline for mailing Christmas gifts to service men overseas. Although the existing restrictions on 51 overseas parcel post of 11 pounds weight, eighteen inches length, and 16 forty-two inches combined length and girth will not be changed for the present, the Departments have asked the public to see that volume does not exceed that of an ordinary shoe box and that weight does not exceed 6 pounds. Food should not 78 be sent, and clothing should not be sent either unless specicifally requested.

> NOTICE TO SCHOOL TRANSPORTATION BIDDERS

The Hancock County School Board reserves the right to reject any and all bids. This 20th day of August, 1942. K. G. McCARTY

HONORABLE JIM EASTLAND

The results of the First Primary Election in the race for United States Senator, show the following votes cast for the respective candidates, with practically complete returns in. Eastland 49,241, Doxey, 37,622, Collins, 36,290, Wall, 7593, and Smith, 1232. In the run-off to be held on Tuesday, September 15th the present incumbent, Senator Wall Doxey will be pitted against Honorable James O. Eastland, who served an interim appointment following the death of Senator Harrison.

That the campaign to be carried on for the next three weeks will vising them that it was their duty be hot and furious is probably expressing it very mildly. Senator Bilbo is supporting Senator Doxey and Governor Johnson is supporting Mr. Eastland, undoubtedly there will be plenty of fur flying.
